

Judge Glenn,

RE: GRANDFATHERED LOAN COLLATERAL SHOULD BE RETURNED TO CUSTODY A/C

Sadly my mother passed away recently and on 8 March 2022, with my father having passed away in 2018, I deposited $143,200 of inheritance in Bitcoin with Celsius. This represented the majority of my parents' lives of hard work.

With these funds I obtained a loan with Celsius, receiving $35,767 USD for the above collateral.

Crucially this was before "Earn" vs. "Custody" accounts existed.

I am now advised that if I were to repay my loan, the collateral would be returned to an Earn account, and as such likely will not be able to be withdrawn. Whereas, funds in Custody accounts likely will be able to be 100% withdrawn.

I and many other customers who completed their transactions before Earn/Custody even existed, should not be forced into Earn accounts that they never agreed to.

I implore you to rule that pre-Earn/Custody loans can - on request or by default - have their collateral transferred back to Custody, and not Earn accounts.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Chris Simpson
